This stunning Colonial-style home, located on a quiet street in the highly desirable neighborhood of West Concord Center, offers an abundance of historic charm. An elegant foyer featuring a handcrafted staircase sets the stage for this gracious home. With beautifully framed windows, pine-wood floors, high ceilings and classic wood-trim throughout, this sun-filled 3 level property includes a great flow floor plan with an open living/dining area along with a great room in the rear of the property offering views/access to a spacious yard, stone patio and detached shed. Two third-floor flex spaces can be used for a master/junior suite, guest room or office. Easy access to restaurants, shops, parks/trails, and public transport. Off-market ideal for owner/investor looking to build equity.
